„Treat others the way you would like to be treated yourself“

16th June 2023

Message from Mrs Procter

This week we have enjoyed another glorious week of sunshine. The children have enjoyed being able to play on the field at break times, we are hoping that the good weather holds for next week for our sports days. Parents are invited to watch the children compete in sports days, the gate at the bottom of the field on The New Chester Road will be opened 15 minutes before it starts. Please feel free to bring yourselves a chair. Parents need to stay behind the rope but you can move around to see your child in each event- they have had great fun practicing this week!

As a school we currently allow children to bring in mobile phones if they are walking home alone, this is for their safety and your piece of mind. The rule in school is that phones are switched off once they come through the main gates and it is then placed into the box on the teacher's desk. The phones are then locked away for safety until the end of the day. Unfortunately over the last few weeks some children have not been doing this and are leaving their phones in their bags and then texting/ messaging at break times, which is a safeguarding issue. If a child's phone is found in their bag it will be removed and will stay with me until a parent/guardian comes to collect it- parents will be informed of this by telephone. Please remind your child of the rules and support us in this.

Weekly Reflection

Ethos Statement – I try to be accepting of others

Each part of the body does its own particular job, which only it can do. No part can manage without the others, and they are all equally important. St. Paul understood this and used the image of the body to help explain to the followers of Jesus how God's family is just like a body. Everyone is different but everyone is of equal importance.

Just as all the parts of my body are important so too, all the members of God's family are important – we can't reject or do without any of them. Some people we might like more than others. Some people we might not even like very much but they are important to the whole body, the whole family. St. Paul tells us that we all have gifts everyone has something useful to offer God's family. Therefore, we should be ready to accept everyone and not just the people we like. We are all part of God's family and we should accept them all.

Lord Jesus, you call each one of us to belong to one people, the family of God. Help us, to love our brothers and sisters and to share your love with the world.
