

I loved my dragon and I WISHED he could stay forever. But I don't think dragons are made to be PETS.

I wasn't sure what to do so I wrote to the WISEST person I knew.

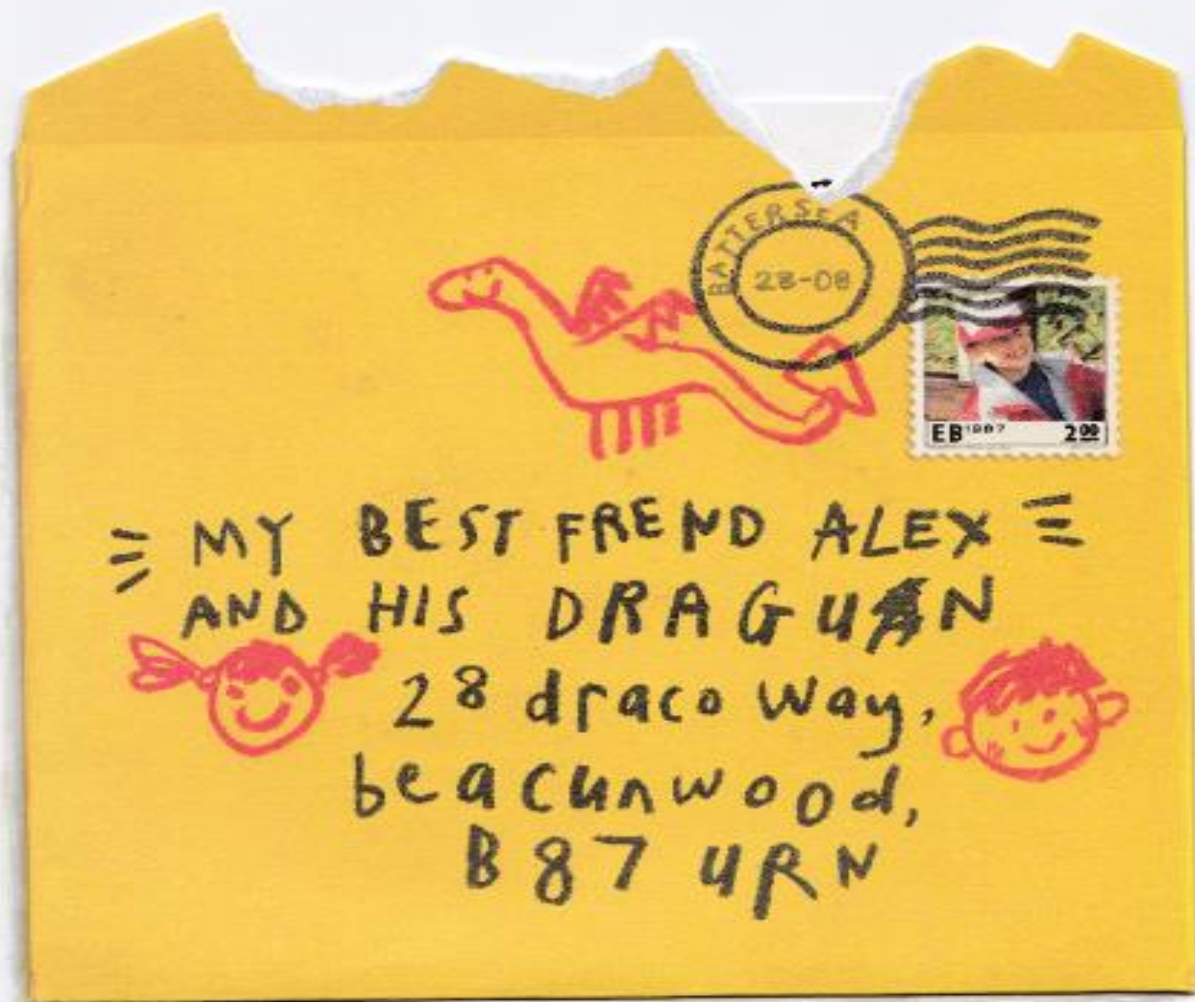

LO: I can design and write a card to a friend.

Talk to your partner:
What might you write to your best friend about the dragon?

To alex
Wow! A dragon! that is SO exciting!
He sounds the BEST. Dragons are my favourite after unicorns.

Oh dear. It does sound like your dragon is VERY BIG and your house is only normal sized... he really can't live with you for ever.

He needs to find his own place
wiv plenty of room to flap about.
If i was a dragon i wud want to be free.

Maybe he shud live somewhere a bit more like this?

As much as you  love your dragon...
it might be time to let him go.

Love from your best friend

PS Giv your dragon a pot on the head and an iced bun from me!

Look at Mrs Hughes' example.

To Jane,

I've got some big news to share with you! Yesterday, I discovered a big, red dragon in my house. He is amazing we go on adventures flying, playing and giggling together everyday.

The other day we went flying at night and it was so special. The stars were glittering in the sky like diamonds. We flew through sky but we were back in time for bed. I love him!

Since we have met we have become great friends. When I fed him delicious foods, he made a little bit too much noise because he was so happy! We got into trouble with the neighbours but we soon made up for it by baking them a delicious, huge cake!

I can't wait for you to meet him!

Today's task

Using what you can remember about writing a letter you are going to design and make your own card telling your best friend all about your dragon.

- Describe your dragon
- Things you could include:
2a/ commas for list/senses description/simile
- Tell them all of the things you have been getting up to Things you could include:
conjunctions BOYS/because
- Ask for advice about what do to with your dragon
