Explore which container holds more.

Gather some different sized containers and fill them with objects.

Estimate how many objects you think are inside each container.

Then check by counting the objects onto the ten frames.

Were you correct?

Which container holds the most?

White Rose Maths

Here are two ten frames that you could use to help you.