The class with the highest attendance this week of 99.33% is 4AY, Miss Yates' class. Well Done!

Weekly Reflection

Ethos Statement – I can say how I feel

This week we have talked about Jesus' feelings. On one occasion Jesus was terribly upset when Lazarus died. At other times he felt happy when he was eating and drinking with his friends. There were also times moments when Jesus felt frustrated when those closest to him did not understand what he was teaching. The Bible even has a story about when Jesus felt very angry.

It is important that we know how we are feeling and that we can share that with someone if we choose to. It is also good to know that Jesus had all the same feelings that we have. From time to time we should check in with our feelings and think about what makes us feel that way. No matter how we are feeling, we should remember that there are people around us who we can speak to and we can even talk to Jesus.

The following children have shown they have a good understanding of feelings this week.

Year 3 Parents

In our RE lessons this half term we have been looking at Baptism. Next week we are going to re-enact a baptism over in Church. On the day that each class does this (see below) we would like all the children to wear smart clothes like they would wear if they were going to a baptism or another important celebration. They can come to school in these clothes and wear them all day. Please bear in mind that they will be playing out as usual so will need to be warm and have sensible footwear.
