

Celebrating VE Day

On Friday 8th May, the whole country would have been involved in celebrating the 75th anniversary of victory in Europe – the end of World War II in Europe.

As we cannot all come together at this time, use the toolkit at <https://ve-vjday75.gov.uk> for ideas and activities to carry out at home.

Take part in the national sing-a-long of Dame Vera Lynn's 'We'll meet again.'

Create bunting and posters to decorate your house. Use the toolkit for ideas.

Use ancestry.co.uk to research your family tree back to WWII. Resources are free all this week.

Hold a 1940's style afternoon tea party at home complete with bunting, games and original dishes. Use the toolkit for ideas.

Watch Dan Snow's daily history lesson on different aspects of the Second World War live on his 'History Hit' YouTube channel from Monday 4th May at 11am each morning.

Print off a Thank You card from the toolkit and post a message of thanks to the Second World War generation.

Use #VEDay75 to post pictures of your celebrations on social media and don't forget to send them to us!!
