

Dear Father

Dear Father,

I have completed my apprenticeship. Thank you for all you have taught me. I am going to seek the Royal Sulphur from Razvani, the Fire-Fiend, and I shall probably not see you again.

Your ex-daughter,

Lila

At the start of Chapter 2, Lila writes a letter to her father to explain where she has gone. Imagine you are Lila and write a more detailed version of this letter, explaining carefully where you have gone and why, as well as how you feel.

Dear Father,

I am writing to you because _____

_____

Firstly _____

_____

In addition _____

_____

Have you considered _____

_____

Furthermore _____

_____

Dear Father

Remember to think about...

How hard you have worked/how important firework-making is to you.

You are not a child anymore/you are independent - don't need a husband.

You are very good at making fireworks and feel disappointed not to be trusted.