Varied Fluency Step 1 – Recognising Hyphens to Avoid Ambiguity

National Curriculum Objectives:

English Year 6: (6G5.13) Using hyphens to avoid ambiguity English Year 6: (6G5.13) How hyphens can be used to avoid ambiguity [for example, man eating shark versus man-eating shark, or recover versus re-cover]

Terminology for pupils:

(6G5.13) hyphen

Differentiation:

Developing Questions to support recognising hyphens to avoid ambiguity within two words and understanding how this changes their meaning (for example, man eating shark and man-eating shark).

Expected Questions to support recognising hyphens to avoid ambiguity within two words and within single words, and understanding how this changes the meaning (for example, re-cover and recover).

Greater Depth Questions to support recognising hyphens to avoid ambiguity, and comparing the use of hyphens and dashes to mark boundaries.
