

LO: To infer the feelings of characters

LO: To infer the feelings of characters

Livia and Tranio are shocked and grief-stricken because they thought the mountain was a volcano and Livia covered her mouth because the air was full with black, dusty smoke. Even though they saw people running on their island still. Tranio put her arm behind Livia because she was so shocked. The people on the island were screaming with fright as they ran. island

Superb description wow!