Rapunzel

LO: To identify nouns
SC: I know the difference between a noun and a proper noun

Starter : Word classes

When we create a sentence we make it out of lots of different types of words.
Naming words (nouns), doing words (verbs) and describing words (adjectives).

The man crept into the garden.

Rapunzel stared out of her tall tower.

The prince loved the beautiful princess.

You can add even more detail with adverbs- these tell us how, why or when something happens and they usually end in ly.

Rapunzel longingly stared out of her tall tower.

Rapunzel sadly stared out of her tall tower.

Rapunzel happily stared out of her tall tower.

Rapunzel quietly stared out of her tall tower.

Now thinking about your word classes can you write some sentences about the story?

The man crept silently into the garden.

Rapunzel was lonely as she stared out of her tall tower.

The prince instantly loved the beautiful princess.

The witch angrily sent Rapunzel away to the woods.

The prince climbed the tall tower excitedly but he was so surprised to see the witch he fell.

Luckily, the prince found Rapunzel and her tears made him better.
