

Which are written in past tense and which are in present tense?

Write a P or a T Challenge: Can you circle BOYS conjunctions?

The fire is burning all the buildings very quickly but we are trying to put it out.

People acted quickly, the river was nearby so they used buckets of water to try to extinguish it.

The fire is still burning even though people worked all night.

Many people have argued, whether if it was the wind or the buildings being so close together that made the fire spread.
