

The Dark- Fix it.

Mrs Hughes has written as The Dark but she has made some mistakes.
Can you fix it?

the Dark lived in a house with a little boy called laszlo Laszlo is afraid of the Dark but the Dark was actually very friendly.

The Dark who was as black as soot was a perfect partner for hide and seek. The Dark would love to play games like hide and seek but sadly Laszlo d want didn't want to let him in. the Dark decided if they are both to live in the same house he should try to make friends with the boy.

in their house the Dark had to live alone. The Dark stayed in the basement all day. every day, the Dark stays in the lonely, dusty and cobweb filled basement The only thing it had for company was an old set of draws. inside the drawers the Dark has a secret. All that the Dark wanted to do is help Laszlo. It hated seeing people afraid because it made the Dark sad.

The Dark tries to speak to Laszlo but he always leaves his light on so he can't get close enough.

One night, the Dark spread itself all around the outside of the house hugging the house like a blanket. Suddenly, the light went out in Laszlo's room so the Dark could enter. That is when the Dark decided to speak to Laszlo.
